1. Understand the physical, psychological and social impacts of sexual assault

2. Know how to create an environment that supports disclosure of a past sexual assault

3. Provide an appropriate response to women who disclose a past sexual assault

4. Foster interdisciplinary and collaborative approaches to minimize structural challenges (e.g. organizational commitment, time, and training)